

AYA REVOLUTION 2009

Bring and Buy Guide & Rules

This is a brief guide to the Aya Revolution Bring and Buy, to help save you time and effort.

When printing the form make sure the form fits on 1 page - some printers may not print close to the edge. For printing the PDF Acrobat Reader has a Fit to Printable Area option. For the RTF file your printer driver should have an option "Print to Fit".

When filling in the form please enter one item per line giving a sequential number to each item and the sale price in the spaces provided. If the price on the form and label do not match we will go by the price on the form, so please make sure all the prices are correct & match the labels.

Please use separate sheets for "Manga & Books", "DVD and Media" & "Everything Else" and continue the sequential item numbers from sheet to sheet. You may have a Maximum of 70 items spanning as many sheets as required.

The Bring and Buy Tables will be split into these 3 sections, and so will your forms. If you have items from 2 or 3 sections on 1 form you will have to re-write the forms, so please avoid this error, to save your time.

Not sure what your item comes under?

Manga & Books: Manga, Books, Artbooks. If you have a Artbook with DVD, if the Artbook is the main selling point it can go here, it's up to you.

DVD and Media: DVDs, Blu-ray, CDs, Laserdisc, other optical/digital formats.

Everything Else: If you don't think it goes in the other 2 sections, put it here. Items should be relevant to Ayacon, Japanese/Far Eastern Culture, etc.

Please note we do not take in VHS Tapes and any obvious fake/pirate goods (Mainly DVDs/CDs).

Please read The Pirate Anime FAQ <http://www.otakunews.com/piratefaq.php> for more information.

Every item will have its own unique item number - just follow on from each form. It does not matter which form starts.

Mark each item clearly with your Bring & Buy ID number, item number and item price, preferably on an easily removable sticky label. But not too easy to remove. Loose Post-It Notes will be rejected and labels that don't come away from the items will have to be applied. If an item loses its label we will not be able to sell it.

Example of label.

Either is fine, but it is imperative the ID number is marked as ID so it does not get confused with item numbers. The same goes for the price - make sure it has a £ or p sign next to it.

ID: 22

Item: 34

£22

ID: 22

34

£22

Please make sure the numbers are clear and can not be mistaken for other numbers. If the labels are not clear or incorrect they will have to be re-written.

ID Numbers can be obtained at the Bring & Buy table or before the convention by emailing publicity@ayacon.org.uk, so you can have all your items labeled up in advance.

For more information about the Bring & Buy you can email at the above address or look at the Bring and Buy thread on our forum, www.ayacon.org.uk/forum/
